Speaking Monday.
Hon. G. G. Gilbert, Democratic nominee for Congress, will address the voters of the county Monday afternoon (county court day), at 1 o'clock, at the Court House.

I will be in my gallery in the Thompson building next Monday, Oct. 24th and will continue there all the week.
Come and have your picture taken.
A. J. EARP, Photographer, Stanford, Ky.

The night trains furnish excellent opportunities to visit Cincinnati, but why go there after goods when J.
Joseph has just what you want in Dry Goods, Dress Goods, Shoes and Cloaks right here at your door.

Good Dinner Court Day.
I serve an excellent dinner every Court Day at my Boarding House, opposite R-mans' shop, on Stanford St.
Low rates. Patronage appreciated.
oct-21-18
Mrs. SAML. POLLARD.

Oyster Supper.
The ladies of the Methodist church gave an oyster supper Tuesday evening, the proceeds to be used to buy a new carpet for the church. A good crowd was present and a neat sum was netted.

Wheat Crop.
Farmers complain that the continued wet weather is retarding the sowing of the wheat crop. Wheat that was sowed early and is now up, has been materially injured by flies and grasshoppers.

Sure Fits.
The wayfaring man, though a fool, could not err in my measure blanks.
You are sure to get a fit. If you do not don't take the suit. Come and compare prices and quality of goods.
M. D. HUGHES, Agent.

Mustered Out.
The Kentucky cavalry was mustered out last week. If they could raise as much down with the enemy as they did coming down on Saturday night, train they should have been sent to the front and kept there.

Foot Ball.
A foot ball team composed of a gang of school boys, came down from Richmond Saturday, and wiped up the earth with Lancaster's best long haired talent. The score resulted 10 to 0, in favor of Richmond. You had better quit, boys.

Back to Work.
John Duncan, who has been confined to his bed for several months, is able to resume work in his barber shop over Bonze's stable. He will be glad to see his old friends and will appreciate a share of the public's patronage.
It

The Dudderar Mill.
I have rented the famous Dudderar Mill, near Gilberts Creek, and am prepared to furnish the very best flour.
Will make a specialty of custom grinding. Farmers, bring along your wheat and co. n. Satisfaction guaranteed.
10-7
JOHN C. POTTS.

Brick Kiln.
The brick kiln since starting has played in continual bad luck, the wet weather has spoiled many brick for them. However they have 65,000 in the kiln and are still making them when the weather will permit. They will fire their kiln in a short time.

Dr. A. D. Smith & Co., the Dental Specialists of Louisville, are now operating upon the leading people of this county all of whom speak in highest praise of their painless method of extracting and filling teeth. All work as represented. See them. Mason Hotel one more week, until Nov. 1st

Turkeys.
The sight of a drove of turkeys coming to town heralds the near approach of Thanksgiving. H. B. Northcott has already commenced the slaughter of fowls, and is shipping a refrigerator car load east, weekly. About 10,000 turkeys will be slaughtered here this season.

Orders have been received at Lexington that no more soldiers should be sent south from that point, until there is a material change for the better in the yellow fever situation. This is right, the soldier boys will have to face enough hardships this winter, without being needlessly exposed to yellow fever.

Postmaster West will hereafter open the post office from 8 to 9 a. m., on Sundays for the accommodation of those who desire their mail. He will also send out mail on Sunday night, closing at 6 p. m. This is a good move and Mr. West is entitled to the thanks of the community.

Mrs. Landram Critically Ill.

Mrs. W. J. Landram, mother of the editor of THE RECORD, is lying at death's door at the home of her son-in-law, Wood G. Dunlap, in Lexington.
She has been quite ill for some time, and the suffering, together with her advanced age, has completely broken her down. We have been in Lexington several days since last issue and ask indulgence of our readers for lack of news matter and other shortcomings this week.

Do Not Be Imposed On.
Always insist on getting Foley's Honey and Tar, as it is positively, absolutely and unqualifiedly the best cough medicine. Accept no substitute.
Im.

1901.
Our good friend, Mr. J. T. Conn, came in last week and paid for the paper 'til 1901. He's one of the best and most honest men in the county, as this act goes to show.

Hume Embury Dead.
A telegram this, Thursday morning, says Hume Embury died suddenly of heart disease at his home in Silver Creek. Mr. Embury was a wealthy and prominent citizen.

May-Jarvis.
Mr. James F. May, of Rollings, and Miss Ola, daughter of W. B. Jarvis, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony Wednesday at 8 o'clock at the home of the brides parents by Rev. Clark. They left for the home of the groom immediately. We extend congratulations to Mr. and Mrs.
May.

Cutting at a Church Dedication.
At the dedication of New Hope church in Flat Wood Sunday, Leonard Nave and James Payne became involved in a difficulty, when Nave cut Payne in the face and leg with a knife. Payne was seriously wounded. Nave was released on his own recognizance and will have his trial Saturday, before Judge Burnside.

Telephone Meeting.
Editor James Maret, of the Mt. Vernon Signal asks us to say that a meeting of the independent telephone companies of Central and Eastern Kentucky, will take place at Bastin's Hotel, Crab Orchard, on Saturday, October 28, where action will be taken that will have an important bearing upon telephone interests in the state.

Mary Anderson's Little Boy.
Mary Anderson, who is now Mrs. de Navarro, and lives in England, has allowed herself, her English home and her two-year-old baby to be photographed for the first time for publication. Some twenty pictures have been made, and the best of these will appear in an early issue of 'The Ladies' Home Journal'. The baby's picture is, of course, the central one of interest.

The Best for the Money.
Everybody knows that Wanamaker & Brown handle more clothing than any house in America, and that they handle none but all-wool goods, and sell them at the lowest prices. Their thousands of customers will testify to the truth of these assertions. Come and get a suit at $8, $10 1/2 or $12 1/2, that will cost from $2 to $5 more elsewhere, and give you value received in fit, wear and appearance.
Splendid overcoats at $7 to $15.
M. D. HUGHES, Agent.

Fortough Out.
Capt. Duncan's Company will assemble at Lexington today (Tuesday), their thirty days furlough having expired.
The second regiment will in all probability be mustered out, but it will take some time, probably three weeks, to do this. The boys have had no overcoats issued them, and in view of the fact that they are to be mustered out, they will probably have none issued them. Cold weather is coming on fast and they will know how to appreciate a good fire when they return home.
It is safe to say the soldiering aspiration will be killed in the breasts of many of these patriotic boys when they return home.

Judge Davison's Speech.
For fear some narrow-minded partisan will say THE RECORD is not sticking to its independent course, we desire to say that the speech of Congressman Davison, printed elsewhere in this issue, is inserted as an advertisement and is paid for at regular column rates. We publish the address just as other paid matter. We are making a hard fight to earn an honest living with THE RECORD and will print the Declaration of Independence if anyone is willing to pay regular space rates for same. Those not wanting to read Mr. Davison's speech have the consolation of knowing there is no law of the land compelling them to do so.

Incomparable Service.
The Queen & Crescent Trains are the finest trains run in the State of Kentucky.

Four daily trains to Cincinnati connect with the main highways of the Great Trunk lines of the North, West and East.

This is the line par-excellence to Washington, New York, Boston and the East.

The Queen & Crescent connects with every line out of Cincinnati.
